

Friends of Millbank

Monthly Lectures

Join us for our talks covering important Military Medical topics from the Crimean War to present day campaigns.

Our talks are held both on Zoom and at the former Royal Army Medical College at Millbank, at 1830hrs on the last Friday of the month. All are welcome.

Our aim is to celebrate and promote the heritage, achievements and ongoing relevance of military medicine.

Explore our site and see for yourself.

Our 2026 Lectures

30 Jan: Strategic Medical Lessons from the 20th Century to inform the 21st

27 Feb: Sir John Pringle (1707-1782) Bringing enlightenment thinking to the battlefield

13 Mar: The evolution of Military Emergency Medicine: are we ready for the next war?

24 Apr: Jacques Lisfranc de Saint-martin (1787-1847), A surgeon of the Napoleonic War

Register: www.friendsofmillbank.org/programme-2026

Venue: Zoom and Millbank

Time: 1830-2000hrs

info@friendsofmillbank.org

29 May: Vignettes from the former Royal Army Dental Corps

26 Jun: A scandalously short introduction to WW1 medical advances

02 Oct: Icarus - the first Air Accident Investigation

30 Oct: Echoes of Captivity

27 Nov: WW1 facial trauma innovations, it wasn't just Gillies

Fee:

Members: Free

Guests: £5 each lecture

Students: Free

Location: Chelsea College of Arts, 16 John Islip Street, London, SW1P 4JU

