

Friends of Millbank Lecture Programme 2026 (always on a Friday) (updated 2 July 2026)
Event	Date (1830hrs)	Title of lecture	Guest Speaker	Comment
AGM (1730hrs) and 1 st lecture	30 January	The contemporary relevance of military medical history	Martin Bricknell	Millbank & Zoom Recording HERE
	27 February	Sir John Pringle (1707-1782): bringing Enlightenment thinking to the battlefield	Iain Macintyre	Millbank & Zoom Recording HERE
Haywood Memorial Lecture	13 March	The evolution of Military Emergency Medicine: are we ready for the next war?	Tim Hodgetts	Millbank & Zoom Recording HERE
	24 April	Jacques Lisfranc de Saint-Martin (1787-1847), a surgeon of the Napoleonic War	Adrian Thomas	Millbank & Zoom Recording HERE
Fireside Chat	29 May (addition to programme)	Adaptation and Innovation in the First Gulf War - a fireside chat (1630hrs)	Louis Lillywhite	Millbank & Zoom (Banqueting Suite) Recording HERE
	29 May	Vignettes from the former Royal Army Dental Corps	Quentin Anderson	Millbank & Zoom (Banqueting Suite) Recording HERE
	26 June	Captain Kenneth Walker RAMC and the paradigm shift in battlefield medicine in WWI'	Dominic Hodgson	Zoom only due to heatwave Recording HERE
	None in July - September
	2 October (note date)	Icarus - the first Air Accident Investigation	Alec Hurley	Millbank & Zoom Register HERE
George Blair Memorial Lecture	30 October	Echoes of Captivity	Louise Reynolds	Millbank & Zoom Register HERE
	27 November	WWI facial trauma innovations, it wasn't just Gillies	Mike Davidson	Millbank & Zoom Register HERE
We meet at 1730hrs for refreshments. Talks start at 1830hrs. Venue: Chelsea College of Arts, Millbank Everyone is welcome to stay for supper afterwards, 2000hrs, at Millbank Towers Pizza Express.				